

City of Cambridge

R-43.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 23, 2001

MAYOR GALLUCCIO
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR BRAUDE
COUNCILLOR DAVIS
COUNCILLOR DECKER
VICE MAYOR MAHER
COUNCILLOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY

WHEREAS: On May 9, 2001 the arts and cultural community of Cambridge celebrates Myra Mayman, founding Director of the Office for the Arts at Harvard, on the occasion of her retirement after 28 years of service; and

WHEREAS: Myra Mayman, building on the Radcliffe College Creative and Performing Arts Program, created and nurtured a wide variety of programs and publications in theater, dance, ceramics, and figure drawing, including visiting artist residencies, grants for artistic projects, and music lesson subsidies; and

WHEREAS: Myra Mayman, at the request of John Lithgow and President of Harvard University, Neil L. Rudenstine, instituted ARTS FIRST, the annual four-day arts festival at Harvard presenting the art of students and faculty to the community; and

WHEREAS: Myra Mayman did successfully establish and further the Office for the Arts' mission to support direct student involvement in the arts in order to integrate creative thinking and expression into the undergraduate educational experience; and

WHEREAS: Myra Mayman and her staff have effectively reached out to the larger community, collaborating with arts and cultural providers in the area, to ensure access to excellence in the arts for everyone; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council on behalf of the City of Cambridge acknowledges and thanks Myra Mayman for her significant and meaningful contributions to the arts and culture at Harvard and in Cambridge; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to Myra Mayman and Harvard University on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council April 23, 2001.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

243

MAYOR GALLUCCIO

WHEREAS On May 9, 2001 the arts and cultural community of Cambridge celebrates Myra Mayman, founding Director of the Office for the Arts at Harvard, on the occasion of her retirement after 27 years of service;

WHEREAS Myra Mayman, building on the Radcliffe College Creative and Performing Arts Program, created and nurtured a wide variety of programs and publications in theater, dance, ceramics, and figure drawing, including visiting artist residencies, grants for artistic projects, and music lesson subsidies;

WHEREAS Myra Mayman, at the request of John Lithgow and President of Harvard University, Neil L. Rudenstine, instituted ARTS FIRST, the annual four-day arts festival at Harvard presenting the art of students and faculty to the community;

WHEREAS Myra Mayman did successfully establish and further the Office for the Arts' mission to support direct student involvement in the arts in order to integrate creative thinking and expression into the undergraduate educational experience;

WHEREAS Myra Mayman and her staff have effectively reached out to the larger community, collaborating with arts and cultural providers in the area, to ensure access to excellence in the arts for everyone.
Now, therefor be it

RESOLVED That this City Council on behalf of the City of Cambridge acknowledges and thanks Myra Mayman for her significant and meaningful contributions to the arts and culture at Harvard and in Cambridge; and be it further

RESOLVED that the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to Myra Mayman and Harvard University on behalf of the entire City Council.

City of Cambridge

R-43.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 23, 2001

MAYOR GALLUCCIO

- WHEREAS: On May 9, 2001 the arts and cultural community of Cambridge celebrates Myra Mayman, founding Director of the Office for the Arts at Harvard, on the occasion of her retirement after 28 years of service; and
- WHEREAS: Myra Mayman, building on the Radcliffe College Creative and Performing Arts Program, created and nurtured a wide variety of programs and publications in theater, dance, ceramics, and figure drawing, including visiting artist residencies, grants for artistic projects, and music lesson subsidies; and
- WHEREAS: Myra Mayman, at the request of John Lithgow and President of Harvard University, Neil L. Rudenstine, instituted ARTS FIRST, the annual four-day arts festival at Harvard presenting the art of students and faculty to the community; and
- WHEREAS: Myra Mayman did successfully establish and further the Office for the Arts' mission to support direct student involvement in the arts in order to integrate creative thinking and expression into the undergraduate educational experience; and
- WHEREAS: Myra Mayman and her staff have effectively reached out to the larger community, collaborating with arts and cultural providers in the area, to ensure access to excellence in the arts for everyone; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council on behalf of the City of Cambridge acknowledges and thanks Myra Mayman for her significant and meaningful contributions to the arts and culture at Harvard and in Cambridge; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to Myra Mayman and Harvard University on behalf of the entire City Council.

6112

Resolution #43

Retirement of Myra Mayman, founding Director of the Office for the Arts at Harvard University.

Mayor Galluccio

In City Council April 23, 2001

ORDER ADOPTED