Oh I have slipped the surly bonds of earth
and danced the skies on laughter's silvered wings.
Sunward I've climbed and joined the tumbling mirth of sun-split clouds and done a hundred things you have not dreamed of, wheeled and soared and swung high in the sunlit silence.

Up, up the long delirious burning blue,
I've topped the windswept heights with easy grace where neither lark nor eagle flew.

And there with silent lifting mind
I've trod the high untrodden sanctity of space, put out my hand and touched the face of God.

OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

Dear Mayor Sullivan and City Council members,
Our family was deeply touched by your kind expression of sympathy. Janet Cahaly
We are truly thankful and greatly blessed for the love and support we received as we gathered to say farewell to our beloved husband and father.

We are comforted by the thought of Sandy happily snapping photos of Harvard Square from yet another perspective.
