

City of Cambridge

Councillors Crane, Danehy and Sullivan

15.

In City Council,
September 13, 1971.

WHEREAS:-

Life came to a close for J. Henry Quinn on July 30, 1971 at the age of seventy-three years, ending a career which had been devoted to the service of his fellowman, and

WHEREAS:-

His service took many forms in many fields, as a dedicated parishioner of St. John's, as a Navy Veteran of World War I, as an outstanding coach of athletic teams, as a member of the Board of Assessors of the City of Cambridge and as an individual always interested in and anxious to assist in the problems of others, and

WHEREAS:-

J. Henry Quinn was a dedicated family man who represented the highest ideals of citizenship and was loved by all for his fairness and generosity and his high sense of honor and his constant devotion to the City of Cambridge, and

WHEREAS:-

In his passing the members of this governing body have lost a staunch friend and a wise counsellor, now therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

By the City Council of the City of Cambridge in regular session assembled on this thirteenth day of September 1971 that we do hereby express our sincere sympathy to the members of Mr. Quinn's family in their bereavement and hope for comfort to those who were near him, and be it further

RESOLVED:-

That the City Clerk be and hereby is directed to have a copy of this resolution delivered to the family of J. Henry Quinn to record for all time our sorrow at their great loss.

City Council Sept 13, 1971

Adopted by the affirmative vote

of 8 members

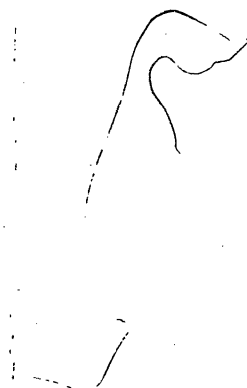

Paul E. Healy
City Clerk

192

15.

RESOLUTIONS

On death of J. Henry Quinn

September 13, 1971

Councillors Crane, Danehy & Sullivan

6-2-71
A