

City of Cambridge

Councillor Russell

IN CITY COUNCIL

March 28, 1977

WHEREAS: Josephine Lillian Doyle has been a life long resident of the City of Cambridge, having been born in East Cambridge April 8, 1902, and

WHEREAS: "Lil", as she is affectionately called by those who know her best, is the self proclaimed "Matriarch" of the Doyle family, which she feels is her just title by reason of longevity and wisdom, and

WHEREAS: Lil, who, left as a young widow, with four children, made ends meet by using her Irish wit (passed on to her by her father, Cornelius J. Sullivan, and her good mother, Polly Nolan Sullivan); shopping at Filene's Basement (her children were always numbered among the best dressed); making gourmet meals from a pound of hamburger and a box of noodles (none of her children look any the worse for that); and with a lot of help from the good Lord, and

WHEREAS: Although it is a well known fact that Lil always has a suitcase packed and takes full advantage of the many opportunities offered to senior citizens and has travelled extensively to many places including Ireland, Bermuda, Canada, and Florida, she still has not succumbed to the lure of BEANO, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record as having congratulated Lil Doyle on her seventy-fifth birthday and wish her many happy returns of the day.
