WHEREAS: On March 3, 1992, the people of Somerville will begin a year long celebration of the 150th anniversary of their City's incorporation; and

WHEREAS: The City of Somerville, first incorporated on March 3, 1842, has grown from a small community of 1,013 inhabitants to a vibrant and active urban city, yet still retains the closeness of a tight knit community; and

WHEREAS: The City of Somerville, built on seven hills and first settled in 1630, has played an important role in the history of the United States and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge has many Sister Cities throughout the world but has no more important Sister City than the City of Somerville; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge and the City of Somerville have, for many years, worked closely on many problems resulting in such collaborative efforts as Cambridge Somerville Elderly Services, Cambridge Somerville Legal Services, Cambridge Somerville Program for Alcohol Rehabilitation and the soon to be affiliation between the Somerville Portuguese Language League and the Cambridge Organization of Portuguese Americans;

ORDERED: The Mayor, the City Council, and all the people of Cambridge congratulate the people of Somerville on its 150th anniversary and look forward to many more years of friendship and cooperation between us.
