

City of Cambridge

29.

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 7, 1991

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR WALSH
VICE MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: Walter L. Milne, Assistant to the Chairman and to the President of MIT, and active Cambridge resident, retired on December 31, 1990 after nearly 40 years of dedicated service; and

WHEREAS: Walter served MIT in a variety of capacities including, for more than 30 years, on the staff of the president and the chairman. For 25 years of those years his duties also included that of MIT liaison to Cambridge community affairs. Walter also served as staff to three presidential search committee for MIT; and

WHEREAS: Walter led the MIT team that directed the development in the 1970's of 700 units of housing for the elderly in three Cambridge neighborhoods: the Daniel F. Burns Apartments in North Cambridge, the L.B. Johnson Apartments in Cambridgeport, and the Miller's River Apartments in East Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Walter helped to found the Cambridge Partnership for Public Education and MIT's Community Service Fund which provides assistance to a variety of volunteer service activities in Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Walter served tirelessly as trustee, founder, board member, commissioner, treasurer, vice president and president of a great number of Cambridge based organizations during his time at MIT; and

WHEREAS: The late James R. Killian, a past president and chairman of MIT and former Science Advisor to President Eisenhower, said of Milne in his memoir The Education of a College President: "He has come to serve five different presidents of MIT, each of whom turned to him for advice and to benefit from him in his role as trusted counselor"; and

WHEREAS: In recognition of his service, MIT has established on his retirement a scholarship fund in his name to be awarded preferentially to students from Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Walter's accomplishments and contributions to both MIT and the City of Cambridge are highly valued; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council extends its gratitude to Walter for his devoted years of service and its best wishes for an enjoyable retirement; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to be presented to Walter Milne on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council January 7, 1991.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

Joseph E. Connarton,
City Clerk

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Joseph E. Connarton".

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

SULLIVAN

JANUARY 7, 1991

WHEREAS: Walter L. Milne, Assistant to the Chairman and to the President of MIT, and long time Cambridge resident, retired on December 31, 1990 after nearly 40 years of dedicated service; and

WHEREAS: Walter served MIT in a variety of capacities including, for more than 30 years, on the staff of the president and the chairman. For 25 of those years his duties also included that of MIT liaison to Cambridge and in that role he was active in Cambridge community affairs. Walter also served as secretary of three presidential search committees for MIT; and

WHEREAS: Walter led the MIT team that directed the development in the 1970's of 700 units of housing for the elderly in three Cambridge neighborhoods: the Daniel F. Burns apartments in North Cambridge, the L. B. Johnson apartments in Cambridgeport, and the Miller's River apartments in East Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Walter helped to found the Cambridge Partnership for Public Education and MIT's Community Service Fund which provides assistance to a variety of volunteer service activities in Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Walter served actively as trustee, founder, board member, commissioner, treasurer, vice-president and president of a great number of Cambridge-based organizations during his time at MIT; and

WHEREAS: The late James R. Killian, a past president and chairman of MIT and former Science Advisor to President Eisenhower, said of Milne in his memoir The Education of a College President: "He has come to serve five different presidents of MIT, each of whom turned to him for advice and to benefit from him in his role as trusted counselor..."; and

WHEREAS: In recognition of his service, MIT has established on his retirement a scholarship fund in his name to be awarded preferentially to students from Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Walter's accomplishments and contributions to both MIT and the City of Cambridge are highly valued; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council extends its gratitude to Walter for his devoted years of service and its best wishes for an enjoyable retirement; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to be presented to Walter L. Milne.

City of Cambridge

29.

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 7, 1991

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

- WHEREAS: Walter L. Milne, Assistant to the Chairman and to the President of MIT, and long time Cambridge resident, retired on December 31, 1990 after nearly 40 years of dedicated service; and
- WHEREAS: Walter served MIT in a variety of capacities including, for more than 30 years, on the staff of the president and the chairman. For 25 years of those years his duties also included that of MIT liaison to Cambridge community affairs. Walter also served as secretary to three presidential search committee for MIT; and
- WHEREAS: Walter led the MIT team that directed the development in the 1970's of 700 units of housing for the elderly in three Cambridge neighborhoods: the Daniel F. Burns Apartments in North Cambridge, the L.B. Johnson Apartments in Cambridgeport, and the Miller's River Apartments in East Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: Walter helped to found the Cambridge Partnership for Public Education and MIT's Community Service Fund which provides assistance to a variety of volunteer service activities in Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: Walter served tirelessly as trustee, founder, board member, commissioner, treasurer, vice president and president of a great number of Cambridge based organizations during his time at MIT; and
- WHEREAS: The late James R. Killian, a past president and chairman of MIT and former Science Advisor to President Eisenhower, said of Milne in his memoir The Education of a College President: "He has come to serve five different presidents of MIT, each of whom turned to him for advice and to benefit from him in his role as trusted counselor"; and
- WHEREAS: In recognition of his service, MIT has established on his retirement a scholarship fund in his name to be awarded preferentially to students from Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Walter's accomplishments and contributions to both MIT and the City of Cambridge are highly valued; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council extends its gratitude to Walter for his devoted years of service and its best wishes for an enjoyable retirement; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to be presented to Walter Milne on behalf of the entire City Council.

Order # 29

S-37

Councillors Duehay and Sullivan resolutions on the retirement of Walter L. Milne from MIT.

In City Council,

January 7, 1991

Order adopted