

City of Cambridge -

In the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy and Our Board of Aldermen.

An Ordinance

December 13, 1871

creating the office of Clerk of Committees.

Be it Ordained by the City Council of Cambridge, as follows:

Section 1. Annually on the first Monday of January, or within thirty days thereafter, there shall be elected by concurrent vote of the two branches of the city council, a Clerk of all committees, standing, ^{or} special, of either branch and of both branches of the city council, not otherwise provided for by ordinance or order, who shall receive such compensation as the city council shall from time to time determine, and hold office one year from the first Monday in the April following his election. He may be removed and his place for the unexpired term filled at the pleasure of the city council.

Section 2. He shall make a proper record in books kept for the purpose of all proceedings and transactions, and keep a calendar of all meetings, of the committees of which he is clerk, and when requested by the chairman notify the members thereof. He shall perform such other duties and services, in making estimates and computations, drawing orders and reports, and rendering assistance, as such committees shall from time to time require.

Section 3. A clerk of committees shall be forthwith elected as, and with the duties, hereinbefore prescribed, who shall hold office until the first Monday of April eighteen hundred and seventy two.
