WHEREAS: Just four short years ago we lived in a city without Pop Warner Football and Cheerleading, and because of the perseverance and commitment of those who wanted to make Cambridge a better place for our young people to grow up and to bring the concepts of City Pride and teamwork back to our young people through the game of football, Pop Warner returned to Cambridge against all odds in the fall of 1992; and

WHEREAS: From the very first season, our young people shocked their competition and despite a lack of experience demonstrated qualities of tenacity, assurance, teamwork, respect and mental toughness that had not been seen before in Pop Warner; and

WHEREAS: Over the next four years, Cambridge Pop Warner Football and Cheerleading sent shocks through the Greater Boston League, and with the help of truly committed parents and coaches, Cambridge Pop Warner football teams have compiled a truly amazing record, and the Cheerleading program is now recognized as one of our area's best; and

WHEREAS: The 1995 season brought Cambridge football to an all time high, with each team winning its respective league Championship; and

- WHEREAS: The "E" team went undefeated with a record of 10-0 and participated in one of the most exciting football contests in Cambridge football history, coming back to beat Somerville under the lights of Hoyt field, and, after beating Acton Boxborough, the team ended the season on a 16 game winning streak; and
- WHEREAS: The "D" team began the season by defeating Everett, Malden and Arlington, three great football programs, a feat never before accomplished in Pop Warner, and after going undefeated during regular season play, went on to defeat Wilmington 6-0 in a playoff game defensive battle in which the "D" teams defense stopped Wilmington 3 times within Cambridge's own 20 yard line; and
- WHEREAS: The "C" team began its great season with a dramatic overtime victory against Everett, and then after a disappointing 6-0 loss to Arlington, showed the ultimate sign of a truly great team in coming back the next week to beat East Boston in overtime, to send the team into the playoffs; and
- WHEREAS: The "B" team began its season right away by showing they had come to win by beating Everett in a hard fought defensive battle, winning on a safety by the score of 2-0, and despite consistent injuries to key players throughout the season, the "B" team players stepped up to the challenge each week and gave Cambridge a great playoff victory by beating Wakefield 14-0 at Revere Stadium; and
- WHEREAS: The "A" team demonstrated great mental toughness and maturity throughout their season and made Pop Warner history by coming back from a 12-0 score at half-time to beat Malden, and most importantly, the "A" team came together during a difficult experience against Acton Boxborough and showed team unity pride and the willingness to defend each other and rise above existing ignorance, giving all of Cambridge something to be very proud of; and
- WHEREAS: The benefits of this great program are being seen citywide through the friendships which have been created across Cambridge, and this year's Thanksgiving Day football game against Cambridge's new rival and Old Pop Warner rival, Everett, allowed former Pop Warner players to give our City the best Thanksgiving Day football game in years, a game which showed our City that Cambridge football is back, and that Pop Warner will breathe new life into Cambridge Rindge and Latin football; now therefore be it

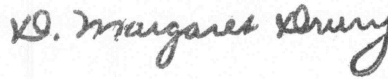

RESOLVED: That this City Council proudly go on record as honoring this year's participants of Pop Warner Football and Cheerleading teams who have once again come together and brought pride to our City and have learned to play as a team, and also understand the value of respect, friendship, loyalty and commitment, and for that, the City Council and the City of Cambridge salutes you.
