Subject Communication from Kate Alicechild

At the City Council meeting of February 2, 1981 the City Council was in receipt of a communication from Kate Alicechild requesting a hearing regarding illegally parked trucks on public streets with their engines left running in the Central Square area.

This communication was referred to the Committee on Public Safety for a hearing.

Would you kindly furnish this office with a report on this matter for the Committee on Public Safety.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

The undersigned respectfully pray

for a hearing on a complaint about trucks illegally parked on a public street with their engines left running. This complaint is against the BANE'S FURNITURE COMPANY, located on Massachusetts Avenue in Cambridge, specifically, against their warehouse manager who has not responded in good faith to complaints about trucks delivering goods to his facility.

I have been in contact with the police about this problem; they respond sluggishly or not at all. I have contacted* the City Department of Traffic; their response, though helpful, did not

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

The undersigned respectfully pray

end the problem. I sincerely wish to be ^{re-}allieved of having to deal with it any more.

Therefore, I request your aid in convincing BANE'S FURNITURE that Section Chapter 90, Section 16 of the State code — which requires that ^{the engines of} trucks left vacant for more than five minutes be turned off — be enforced; and that, if BANE'S refuses to act on this complaint in good faith, that they be denied the use of a public thoroughfare for conducting private business.

Thank you.
