CAMBRIDGE RINDGE AND LATIN HIGH SCHOOL, MAIN CAFETERIA
APRIL 26, 1994 3:00 PM

We invite you to join us in a discussion on a serious issue. Underage drinking is a problem that requires cooperation from all segments of society. Parents, schools, teenagers, the alcoholic beverages industry, public officials, police, hospitals and the media can all contribute to the prevention of alcohol abuse by minors.

We applaud the many important efforts that are already underway to address this critical issue. In holding this meeting, our goal is to bring together a broad coalition of individuals and organizations concerned about this issue. In doing so we aim to develop recommendations for policies, legislative changes and specific action plans that will reduce underage drinking and save lives. By combining resources, skills and commitment of all those involved, we are better able to ensure that effective action is taken to prevent this alcohol abuse.

This discussion is a project of the Massachusetts Underage Drinking Task Force, established by Governor William Weld and under the office of Secretary of Consumer Affairs Priscilla Douglas. Members of the Task Force include the: Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission, Department of Public Health Bureau of Substance Abuse, Governor's Highway Safety Bureau, Executive Office of Education, Executive Office of Public Safety and the Chairmen of the Legislature's Joint Committee on Government Regulation.

We encourage you to add your voice to others as we develop the tools and strategies to reduce the occurrence and acceptance of teenage drinking. In participating in this discussion, please consider the following questions:

- o What is your perception of the problem of underage drinking?
- o What efforts are you a part of that address the problem of underage drinking?
- o What strategies have you found successful in preventing underage drinking?
- o What recommendations do you have which could be implemented on the local or statewide level to respond to the problem of underage drinking?

Your participation will ensure a successful and comprehensive event. Thank you for your cooperation and commitment.

If you have any questions please call Pam Nourse at the ABCC, (617) 727-3040.
