Orders/H. Davis

45. 1. That the City Council consider a change in the agenda to separate the honorary orders from orders related to improving city services or setting policy.

46. 2. Whereas the city puts out a lot of public information on the Internet;
Whereas not all city residents have access to the internet and are unable to make use of that information;

That the city Manager provide an up-date on the provision of public computer terminals at city hall and other public buildings such as 57 Inman Street and the Bruschi building.

47. 3. Whereas many citizens wish Cambridge to have the highest standards of cleanliness of its streets and business areas;

Whereas the cooperation of business owners is needed to achieve that level of cleanliness

Whereas there are ordinances about keeping sidewalks clean that do not address the mess that can end up in the gutter

That the city manager instruct the law department to prepare an ordinance to encourage the cleanest gutters possible, possibly prohibiting the sweeping of sidewalk litter into the gutter.

Further that the city manager create a public information campaign to encourage adherence to high standards.

48. 4. Whereas many neighbors of Russell Field have noticed and appreciated the high quality of maintenance at the field and whereas it is always nice to give credit where credit is due that the city council go on record thanking the Public Works crew and others who are responsible for maintaining this field so well.

further that commissioner Dunphy relay this message to those parties who deserve the credit.
