Dear Walter -

I was greatly pleased and touched by the resolution of the City Council passed on your initiative on April 7. I enjoyed my work on the Authority, considered it an honor to serve, and so was sorry to leave.

Like you, I can remember back to the beginning of redevelopment in Cambridge with Paul Corcoran's great leadership and Monaghan Hicks riding the bulldozer at the Deane Block demolition. Some good things happened and I hope we can ~~and~~ up well in Kendall Square.

Will you please express my deep appreciation to the other members of the Council who voted in favor of the resolution.

Very best wishes.
