15.
IN CITY COUNCIL
January 23, 1978

COUNCILLOR VELLUCCI

- WHEREAS: The Young Men's Christian Association has for 95 years been an important part of the fabric of community life in Cambridge for countless citizens, and
- WHEREAS: The "Y" has provided opportunities for thousands of our citizens to learn to swim, to engage in healthful sports, to go to camp and to acquire new skills and hobbies, and
- WHEREAS: Today the YMCA continues to play an important role in our community by not only continuing to offer traditional programs but also by offering new programs to meet the changing needs of Cambridge, such as programs for youth in trouble, a youth basketball league stressing values instead of the "win at all cost" philosophy, cardiovascular fitness programs which may extend the lives of many of our citizens, and many other programs, and
- WHEREAS: These programs of the YMCA add greatly to the quality of life in our community, now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council declare January 22-29 as YMCA week in Cambridge and urge that all Cambridge citizens join in saluting the YMCA for its outstanding efforts in the past and support its efforts to serve Cantabrigians in the future.
