IN CITY COUNCIL

October 17, 1983

MAYOR ALFRED E. VELLUCCI

- WHEREAS: This City Council on September 19, 1983 voted to request the City of Dublin, Ireland to form a Sister City relationship with the City of Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: The City of Dublin, Ireland is the birthplace of many of our citizens who left the shores of Ireland to seek a new life in America, under the blessings of liberty and where they achieved success and high honors in the fields of government, business, education and the arts; and
- WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is known throughout the world as the University City, as the home of Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; and
- WHEREAS: The City of Dublin, Ireland is known as the home of Trinity College, and has achieved great prominence for its scholars who have made great contributions in the fields of literature, the arts and in government; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record favoring the establishment of a Sister City relationship with the City of Dublin, Ireland to strengthen the bonds of friendship which presently exist between these two great cities and to further promote the good will and exchange of scholarship and ideas which are the cornerstones of freedom and the democratic society which we cherish; and be it further

RESOLVED: That a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution be presented to the Mayor and the City Council of Dublin, Ireland, with a fervent hope that they will look with favor on this expression of good will and friendship and form a Sister City relationship with the City of Cambridge.
