Dear Joe,

On behalf of the City and the Harvard Square Business Association, I would like to request permission of the City Council and from the City Manager to hold our annual Holiday Light Procession through Harvard Square on Friday, November 29, 1991 (the day after Thanksgiving) beginning in front of the Inn at Harvard - corner of Mass. Avenue & Quincy Street - at 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Our procession traditionally has involved the Mayor and other city officials, a fire truck, a police escort, puppets, carolers, and an Old Town Trolley wending slowly towards Charles Square for the City's official tree-lighting ceremony in their courtyard.

The procession only needs to block traffic for a short time while we all turn the corner near Out of Town News. During that time, we will need a cruiser to lead the procession and a little help from police auxilliary and on-duty officers at Church Street and at the intersections along the way.

We look forward to a delightful procession, snow or shine, on Nov. 29th, to mark the advent of the 1991 Holiday Season in Cambridge. Thank you for your continuing support of this fine Cambridge tradition.

Sincerely yours,

Sally Alcorn
