City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen, October 20 1869

The Committee on Roads & Bridges submit the following report on the petition of J^r. G. Coolidge representing that his estate on Coolidge Avenue has been very much damaged by the change of grade, and asking that it may be placed in as good condition as before. They find that the City, at an expense of upwards of Eight Hundred Dollars, has made a very good road where a very bad one previously existed, and that the said estate has not been injured but on the contrary that it has been benefited thereby. They therefore recommend that the petitioner be granted leave to withdraw.
