WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge suffers every time one of its children passes away prematurely; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is deeply saddened by the death of ANTHONY Q. SIMMONS, a Cambridge native and long time resident; and

WHEREAS: ANTHONY Q. SIMMONS, twenty seven years old, was tragically murdered the evening of Monday, July 31st, by an assassin's bullet in Brockton, Massachusetts; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is also troubled by the epidemic of violence that has afflicted our African-American community, particularly, that which has tormented African-American males, who are the disproportionate victims of violent crime; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby express its deep sadness at the loss of its friend ANTHONY Q. SIMMONS, and extends its hand of support to his surviving relatives; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby also express its outrage at the wave of violence that has afflicted our nation's African-American community, and pledges to continue to oppose violence where ever it appears.
