APPOINTMENTS

1850

East Cambridge April 9th 1850

To the Honourable, the Mayor, & City Council of Cambridge

Gentlemen,

Since my election as Assessor of Taxes for the current municipal year, circumstances have occured which render it impracticable for me to properly discharge the duties of that trust.

I therefore would respectfully beg leave to resign that office.

Respectfully Yours,
Edward G Stevens.

The Hon the Mayor & City Council of Cambridge

Com. Ex. Edward G. Stevens,
declining office of Assessor.
9 Apl. 1850.

Cambridge March 30. 1850

Lucius R. Paige Esq

Dear Sir, I received a notice from you, as City Clerk, that I have been "duly elected an assessor for said City, for the ensuing municipal year"; which office I most respectfully decline excepting — I herewith take the liberty to remark, that I declined the nomination to that office, previous to the election of City Officers —

Respectfully

John Hews

Com. fr. John Hewes,
declining the office of Assessor
1 Sep. 1858.
