SAN DIEGO CITY STORE

UNUSUAL GIFTS are what you will find at the San Diego City Store. If you are short on time and can't make it into one of our unique stores, take a moment to order through our catalog. Each piece of merchandise is representative of city memorabilia with a little sense of humor mixed in. We have a wide selection in both price and product. What better way to find a unique gift and benefit the City of San Diego!

ABOUT THE STORE: The San Diego City Store first opened its doors in November 1991. The idea was conceived by City Manager Jack McGory as a pilot project for the City of San Diego's entrepreneurial program. The merchandising concept was created by Hood/Learner/Parenti, the consultant firm contracted to manage and operate the City Store. The merchandise consists of surplus goods from various city departments as well as products that have been created utilizing a city theme, insignia or those related to a special event.

PLEASE NOTE: Because of the varying availability of salvage items, our merchandise offering changes frequently and our products are limited to stock on hand. We have many other items not shown in this catalog. Call us for more info, we welcome special requests. When in San Diego visit our store at the City of San Diego Administration Building or one of our other shopping center locations. Call 619-239-CITY for more information.
