For: City Manager and Councilors

I write to support continued funding for Cambridge Community Television (CCTV).

In a time when media is too often controlled by fewer and fewer corporate groups, it is crucial that there be media outlets that are accessible to the community and committed to community needs.

I know many young people whose lives have been enriched by their work at CCTV. They have learned skills that will support not only their careers but also their desire to become positive contributors to the Cambridge community.

I have appreciated the support you provide for these kinds of services in Cambridge -- services that make our community a liveable place for all our citizens, young and old. Thank you for your past support, and for the support I hope you will offer in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

Steven Brion Meisels
