Honorable Cambridge City Council
Cambridge, Massachusetts

Dear Colleague:

I am pleased to announce that the Committee on Community and Economic Development of the National League of Cities on which I serve has voted to hold its fall meeting in Cambridge. About 40 Mayors and Councillors from across the country and staff will come to Cambridge from October 5-7 1995.

I am particularly grateful to several persons who helped me with my presentation by assembling an attractive packet for the occasion. Sandra Albano, Dorothy Giacobbe, Ned Handy of Community Development and Maura Smith of the Tourism Office put together this packet which I am circulating tonight. Five cities competed within the committee for this distinction.

I shall keep you informed as the agenda of the committee develops.

Sincerely yours,

Whereas: It has come to the attention of this City Council that the Pilot School will present a musical-theatrical production, "Back On The Block" at the CRLS James P. Fitzgerald Theatre, on April 6, 7 and 8, 1995; and

Whereas: This year's production marks the return, of the Pilot School, after a year's hiatus, is back in play production and the title is also the general setting and theme for an exploration of the life of a neighborhood; and

Whereas: Through song, dance and skits, Pilot students will explore conversations about life issues, be they school events, information and hear-say, miscommunication ... even pets and their people; and

Whereas: This presentation is a collaborative ^{effort} among students, faculty, staff and alumni which is the process that creates the artistic and community-building tradition of the Pilot Play; now therefore be it

Resolved: That this City Council go on record extending its best wishes and heartiest congratulations to the Pilot School Community in this artistic endeavor; and be it further

Resolved: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably expressed copy of this resolution to Pilot School Dean Helen Jacobson on behalf of the entire City Council.
