Dear Councillors, Vice Mayor, and Mayor,

On behalf of the family of Freda S. Nesson we would like to convey our deep gratitude for your resolution of sympathy following her passing on June 14. Each of us was moved deeply both by its sentiments and by the effort of producing it.

The resolution reflects the caring attitude that the City of Cambridge has toward its people. Such expressions of concern foster a positive atmosphere, a sense of community, and encourage citizens to act on behalf of the city and each other.

Our family has witnessed this tradition for many years. My father, William T. Nesson, and his four brothers were all raised on Windsor Street by immigrant parents. As current homeowners in the city, we are proud to be here and feel privileged to participate as citizens in the city's future.

Thank you for your kindness and thoughtfulness in creating a beautiful remembrance for our beloved mother.

Sincerely,

Bob
