Cambridge, MA 02139

Dear Members:

The sheltered area with benches in the front of the Cambridgeport library (corner of Pearl and Franklin streets) originally intended for persons waiting on the bus, has become a haven for public intoxication, loitering, obscenity, fights, stabbings, drug-dealing, prostitution and other types of criminal activity.

We, the community, are constantly confronted by litter - discarded food and clothing, liquor bottles, beer cans, and paper products - the stench of urine, and the sight of blood, vomit, and human feces.

The problem is continuous - days, evenings, weekends - around the clock.

The police and public works departments have made every effort to patrol and clean this area but the problem remains.

As a result, we the undersigned residents of the Pearl/Franklin street community are petitioning the city to do the following:

1. REMOVE BENCHES FROM THE AREA
2. REMOVE PAY PHONE FROM AREA
3. FENCE OFF AREA (like Library has already done)
(to stairway.)
