CITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

In Board of Aldermen,

June 22^d 1887.

The Committee on Roads and Bridges

to which was referred the petition of Charles Schiffendeker, and others, praying that Seventh Street between Thurdike Street and its present southerly terminus, may be accepted, and also that the street may be extended to Spring Street, and accepted by the city.

Reports,

~~Recommending~~ That Seventh Street at present extends southerly, only as far as Thurdike Street. Opposite the southerly terminus of said Seventh Street there is a private way extending from Thurdike Street southerly about One Hundred and Fifty feet,

Between the southerly end of said private way, and Spring Street there are occupied buildings fronting on Spring Street.

Inasmuch as the aforesaid private way is not up to the proper grade, and the extension of the same would require a considerable expenditure for a purpose, for which there is no appropriation, Your Committee recommends that the petitioners have leave to withdraw.

For the Committee.

Edw. W. Hinckes
Chairman.
