C R Lanman	9 Farrar St.
C. A. Adams	13 Farrar St.
C. E. Norton.

1. There is now no crossing on Irving Street North of Kirkland and no crossing whatever on Scott Street.

2. Persons living on the Point cannot get off without crossing either Scott or Irving Street. Many of them have to go to Harvard Square, or in that direction, daily, and some of them several times a day.

3. Persons living on the West side of Irving Street and wishing to go through Scott Street to the Porters Station cars, or beyond, will be accommodated by the crossing.

4. The residents upon Irving Street North of Kirkland put down every year, for the convenience of themselves and the public, a continuous board walk.

5. There has been in recent years a rapid growth in this section which is likely to continue. The value of the Norton Estate, so called, through which this part of Irving Street is cut, has increased according to the assessor's books from $81,000 in 1889 to $261,000 in 1894.
