WHEREAS: Janet Daly, the first joyous face and wholesome soul of the Cambridge Municipal Employee Credit Union, has in the quickening of an eye – entered blissful retirement and now we, the Cambridge Municipal Employee Credit Union's members, must slowly come to understand our unique and great loss; and

WHEREAS: How do you replace that smile, the warm welcome, that person in whom you could confide and share any circumstance be it confidential or just joyful; and

WHEREAS: Janet in her own inimitable way provided the Cambridge Municipal Employee Credit Union members true service and compassion – she cared. Families are important to her. Helping is important to her. What a special listener she is. What a fine person we have had to assist us and to share with us her kindness and care; and

WHEREAS: It really isn't possible to speak of Janet without mentioning Joe Daly – the other half of the Daly double. We must mention him with her only because we know that we lost Janet at the Cambridge Municipal Employee Credit Union to the special embrace of Joe who has modeled retirement all too well. Now Janet and Joe have all of their time to spend with each other, their wonderful children and grandchildren – and us but, outside the Cambridge Municipal Employee Credit Union; and

WHEREAS: The citizens of Cambridge and the many members of the Cambridge Municipal Employee Credit Union thank Janet Daly for her many wonderful years of service to the extended family of employees of Cambridge and for her steadfast commitment to service and kindness to all those that she assisted; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council hereby records on the records of the City the service of a wonderful civic servant who brought to her responsibilities grace, wit, aplomb and sincere service; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council recognizes Janet Daly for her superior service and wishes her a wonderful retirement with the hope that there will be blue skies, many joyous moments with hubby, children and grandchildren – and that she will always be fulfilled as a woman, loving spouse, mother, grandmother and citizen. And, may she always reflect upon her work life with a sense of having given her best and that the people she served appreciated her work and loved her very much; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to Janet Daly on behalf of the entire City Council.
