Mayor Alfred E. Vellucci
City Hall
Cambridge

Dear Mayor Vellucci,

I would like to congratulate the City of Cambridge on the occasion of the rededication of City Hall. That building and the Authorities of Cambridge have served the population in an outstanding way for these one hundred years. Especially I'd like to thank you and the City Councillors for the good relations that we, the religious leaders of Cambridge, have had with the City. This has been due to the outstanding people that you all are and always have been.

I regret to say that I will not be able to join you for the ceremony of rededication due to the recent death and funeral of our beloved Pastor, Fr. Joseph Connolly. It is necessary for me to be away from Cambridge this afternoon.

Thank you for the invitation. Our Deacon, Henry Gardyna, and Sister Margaret Nawn will represent our Parish on this joyful occasion, and it is they who bring you this letter.

Sincerely,

Rev. Albert H. Stankard
Parrochial Vicar
