En. Common Council Oct. 11th. 1870

The Joint Standing Committee On Roads & Bridges who were directed by a recent order of the City Council to examine a building now being erected by J. G. Felt on Cambridge Street, & report if any action is necessary to determine the line of said street at that point, would Respectfully Report.

That although they find the building alluded to does not project beyond the line of the Street, it is placed upon land that has long been traveled upon by the public, & that it would be very desirable for the City to retain it for the same purpose as the sidewalk is narrow at this place. And your committee recommend that Cambridge Street be widened on its
