Councillor Walsh

IN CITY COUNCIL

March 23, 1987

WHEREAS: Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc., one of Cambridge's biggest employers has decided to move a large part of its company's operations out of Cambridge after 40 years; and

WHEREAS: Company officials say the decision was made because of tough "City Laws and Regulations" such as the recently passed smoking ordinance and a proposed linkage law and because cheaper rents are available elsewhere; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager is hereby respectfully requested to invite representatives of Bolt, Beranek and Newman to appear before Cambridge City Council at its next regularly scheduled meeting on March 30, 1987 in order to permit the company to explain more fully the reasons behind its recent decision to move as much as half of its operations out of the city; and be it further ORDERED: That the City Manager is also respectfully requested to invite a representative from the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce to attend the City Council meeting in order to share its perspective on the situation.
