

The first rule for solving a problem is, to face it.

Before the mess described, a solution given. The only way I know out of it is to cultivate one's spiritual alchemical forces, for in doing so one connects with the Primal Power and Core Light. The Primal Power is invisible, indivisible energy.

All elements which use trespass and violence are founded on inferior knowledge since all that anyone needs can be obtained from The Abundant Source. Forcibly taking from others is an unnecessary imbalanced act. Balance of Intent is not equal to Balance of Reality Ineluctable.

Even though such invading powers have highly advanced forms of technology their founding negative principles renders their force inferior to the Primal Power.

The only two problems of life are violence and gluttony. Being able to deny these from interfering with your life enables one to proceed with the things that need to be done for life to become the fulfilling phenomena that it should be.

The Earth has existed much longer than Humanity realizes. There have been many civilizations on it completely unknown to contemporary humanity.

What is about to be described gives a general overview of how the circumstances we are in came about.

The known history of humanity, as far as my studies have caused me to believe, has been derived from the phenomena of galactic specie nations coming to Earth and creating human forms, into which living spirits naturally magnetized into. This is a general description of the beings created. Of course there were different formats.

Space traveling galactic nations created these humans to be their slaves. Others created other human forms simply just to live and occupy the Earth. And still other galactic nations arrived after the humans had been created and made slaves of humans and used humans as food, just as humans raise livestock as food. This last phenomena is the core of the problem on Earth today for humanity. The main enemies are called Reptillions and Grey Insectacoids. In otherwords the Earth and humanity have been used as a genetic laboratory. This is why you see so many different conflicting kinds of humans instead of one unified species which is what would have happened if our species had evolved from The Source. By "Unified it is not meant "looking the same". "Unified" means that there would be at the core a sense of unity just as in nature there are many diverse things but they all work in unity because there is a unity in their creation. These galactic alien species have breded and raised slave controllers to oversee humanity. These are the international bankers, the monarcal and aristocratic families, and the world industrialists. They are the front control for the Earth's resources and they view humanity as nothing more than their slave workers and cattle, to be done with as they please. Of course they control all manner of government beauracrats and societal subversive agents as eyes and ears and killers to keep humanity under their control. They have also created secret societies which act as programming and training units for the population subversion controllers. They take all actions necessary to insure that humanity doesn't rise to a level where it would be prosperous and happy and thereby no longer under their control. Because part of being prosperous and happy is knowing what's going on. If you know that someone is enslaving you you're not going to allow it to continue. Thus humanity must be bound in fear, physical and mental chaos and burdensome wearying labor in order to be kept in such a weakened state that it cannot martial it's resources to know what is truly going on. Also humanity's access to true news must be denied and this is accomplished by propagandistic brainwashing news media. If you are overwhelmed by all of this, I provide reading materials for you to do your own research.

Thus the slavers continually perpetuate violence and then present themselves in guises of sincerity making great effort to lead the way out of it. But their solutions are endlessly nothing more than more denial of freedom. An historically recent direction of negative galactic alien activity is to inbreed with the human specie in order to take over the planet. There are however higher forms of galactic beings who value humanity's dynamic spiritual nature and will not allow the alien technocratic being to prevail. The Core Light is above technocratism. Techocratism is defined as to function by materialistic process disconnected from the power and way of The Source.

To conclude. The Source allows life to evolve in whatever way it chooses. The galactic aliens rebelled against the Divine Process for life evolution.

But through great effort we can develop our spiritual alchemy to liberate ourselves into a unified culture in harmony with the True Source.
