In Board of Aldermen,
November 27th, 1900.

Resolved, that the public necessity and convenience require that Clifton street should be extended and laid out between Harvey and Dudley streets, and that for the purpose of such extension and laying out it is necessary to take certain strips of private land bounded and described as follows:—

Beginning at a point in the westerly line of Clifton street at its intersection with the southerly line of Harvey street; thence running easterly along said southerly line, forty and twenty-five hundredths (40.25) feet, to its intersection with the easterly line of Clifton street; thence southerly along said easterly line parallel to and forty (40) feet distant easterly from the westerly line of Clifton street, six hundred and forty and one-tenth (640.1) feet, to its intersection with the line bounding the portion of Clifton street accepted by the City of Cambridge by an order approved October 9, 1889; thence westerly along said boundary line, forty (40) feet, to its intersection with the westerly line of Clifton street; thence northerly along the westerly line of Clifton street, six hundred and forty-four and seven-tenths (644.7) feet, to its intersection with the southerly line of Harvey street at the point of beginning. Containing twenty-five thousand six hundred and ninety-six (25,696) square feet, more or less.

The above described parcel of land is shown on a plan entitled "Plan of Clifton street for Acceptance," drawn by M. Hastings, City Engineer, dated Nov. 22, 1900, and on file in the office of the City Engineer of Cambridge, Mass.

It is therefore

Ordered, That due notice be given to the owners of land abutting on said Clifton street, between the points before mentioned, and all other persons interested, by a delivery of a copy of this order of notice in the manner prescribed by law, and by publication in the newspaper called the Cambridge Press, that this Board intends to extend and lay out said Clifton street to the width of forty (40) feet by taking a portion of their land and laying out the same as a public street, and that Tuesday, the 18th day of December next, at 8.30 o'clock P. M., and the Aldermanic Chamber, City Hall, are assigned as the time and place for hearing any objections which may be made thereto.

Adopted.
