RE: Porter Exchange Building Signage

Please be advised that I have contacted the Porter Square Advisory Committee by letter and telephonically with regard to the proposed signage on the Porter Exchange building.

The Committee has no objections to any of the signs so long as the Community Development Department has assured us that the brightness of the neon is not offensive and the reception to their televisions have no interference. Community Development has assured me of both of these facts.

There is one person on the committee who does object, Carol Hartman. However, she objects to the Holiday Health sign flat against the building which has already been approved by Community Development and did not require City Council approval. The signs requiring your order are the signs over the public way.

Carol Hartman has referred me to Henry Shawah who represents the tenants at 1851 Massachusetts Avenue with regard to television interference from the temporary Holiday Health Sign. Mr. Shawah wants to be assured that the new Holiday Sign will not do the same.

I, therefore, offer this information for your action with regard to the City Council order or further action from our office as you may direct.
