MIDDLESEX COUNTY EXTENSION SERVICE
105 EVERETT STREET
CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS 01742

February 11, 1976

Good Morning

You and your spouse are cordially invited to attend an informative meeting about the Middlesex County Extension Service at the Waltham Experiment Station, 240 Beaver Street, Waltham, Mass., on Thursday, March 4, 1976 from 7:30 P.M. to 9:30 P.M.

The purpose of this meeting is to have you become more familiar with the Educational Programs of your County Extension Service in the following areas:

Home Economics: Programs to improve social well being and adjustment to social and economic changes for the homemaker.

4-H and Youth Development: Programs to foster beneficial development of youth 9 - 19 years old through a voluntary youth leader system.

Home Horticulture: Programs geared to the care of home grounds and vegetable gardening.

Commercial Agriculture: Programs aimed at efficient production and quality improvement of food and other agricultural products.

Community Resource Development: Education of the local elected and appointed officials, and citizen groups to more effectively serve the community where they reside in the fields of natural resources, energy conservation and recreation.

Every Mayor, City Manager, City Council and Board of Aldermen in Middlesex County is being invited to attend this meeting on March 4, 1976. Why not plan to spend two hours with the Extension Service on the above date and in addition take the opportunity to meet other elected officials of cities in Middlesex County.

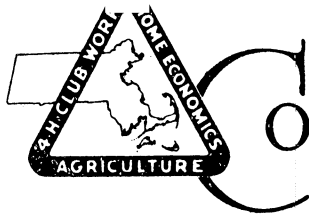

Fill out the enclosed, postage paid, postal card and return by February 20, 1976.

Sincerely,

Edward G. Connolly
