

Cambridge, June 20 1866.

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned respectfully ~~pray~~ represent that they are dealers in new and second hand articles, and come within the provisions of "An Ordinance in relation to the Sale of Junk, Old Metals and Second hand articles, passed Oct 26. 1864, that the ordinance referred to submits them to a tax dis proportional to their business, and in their opinion excessive - Wherefore they pray that so much of said Ordinance as requires them to pay the annual tax of ten dollars for a license may be repealed.
