Dear Mr. Mayor:

The Harvard Square Business Association requests your permission to reserve the Cambridge Common on Sunday, May 4, 1986 (raindate: May 18) to hold our third annual international spring festival. We are restructuring the MayFair this year as a family-oriented spring outing and as an international crafts fair. There will be no beer or wine sold at the MayFair; instead the MayFair will feature folk dancers, clowns, llamas, amusement rides, and an icecream-eating contest and raffle.

As in the past, the Business Association will provide necessary security, supervision, public toilets, and clean-up. We will not need to reroute traffic in the area, but we will need to obtain permits for any food vendors. Set-up would begin at 10 a.m., MayFair would run from 12 noon until 6 p.m., with clean-up completed by 7 p.m.

We look forward to sponsoring the MayFair as an annual community event on the Cambridge Common. Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely yours,

Sally Alcorn
