COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

- WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council deplores Iraq's invasion of Kuwait; and
- WHEREAS: The U.S. has accomplished its original military objectives in the Middle East, to prevent Iraq from invading Saudi Arabia; and
- WHEREAS: The present cost of U.S. troop deployment in Saudi Arabia is 30 million dollars a day; and
- WHEREAS: We now face the real prospect of devastating, costly and probably prolonged military action; and
- WHEREAS: In the last ten years U.S. conservation and alternative energy programs have been dismantled; and
- WHEREAS: These policies have made us vulnerable to Middle East oil suppliers; and
- WHEREAS: Our long term national security is being threatened by neglect of: education, healthcare, housing, the environment, infrastructure and our civilian industry; and
- WHEREAS: Now the United Nations is taking leadership in an international crisis, functioning for the first time in many years in its intended role; and
- WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge has shown its commitment to challenging local and global violence and supporting peace and cooperation through the establishment and support of the Cambridge Commission for Nuclear Disarmament and Peace Education; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council condemns Iraq's invasion and annexation of Kuwait, supports the use of economic sanctions (except food and medicine) imposed by the United Nations to compel Iraq's withdrawal from Kuwait, and urges that all further action be coordinated under U.N. auspices; and be it further

- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council commends the United Nations for its leadership in imposing sanctions to solve this crisis, and urges the full consideration of all responsible offers for peaceful negotiations; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council extends its sympathy to the peoples of the Middle East whose lives are directly affected by the crisis, and wishes for them a just and peaceful solution; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council urges Congress to keep the proposed military budget cuts in order to release funds for our neglected domestic needs and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council urges President Bush to develop a coordinated national energy policy which will reduce United States dependence on oil; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council calls on all citizens of Cambridge to avoid any acts of racism or stereotyping against Arabs and all other peoples.
