Dear City Council:

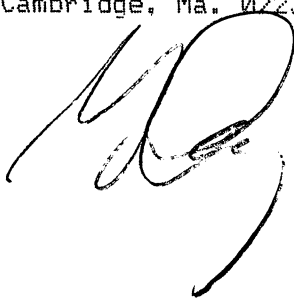

What does the bumper sticker say, "think global, act locally".

We Cambridge folks, seem to take a very active role in issues as South Africa & Nicaragua, very important issues to be sure, but it seems besides rent control nothing much is happening to build a better community here at home.

I just returned from Santa Rosa & Marin county. Both communities have a comprehensive recycling program. We need such a program. This is Cambridge, Mass.. One of the few progressive communities in the United States. We should be setting high standards for our community, both locally and globally. The environment must be the first priority, as it is the very sustenance of our lives on planet Earth. Recycling may be only a small ingredient, but it makes all citizens more aware of their consumption and what happens after and its effect.

I will be happy to assist the city council in any way on this matter. I have contacts all over California and Europe on techniques and equipment that can be used.
