IN CITY COUNCIL

February 28, 1983

COUNCILLOR DANEHY
VICE-MAYOR RUSSELL

- WHEREAS: This City Council was deeply saddened upon learning of the death of John J. O'Connor, a life-long Cantabrigian and member of the Cambridge Planning Board on February 5, 1983 after a brief illness, at the age of fifty-six years; and
- WHEREAS: John J. O'Connor served the University City as a member of the Planning Board giving generously of his time and efforts in all deliberations, and as a member of the faculty of the Woburn High School, won the lasting respect of his colleagues by his enthusiasm in the presentation of his courses and the high standard of performance which he demanded of himself and his pupils; and
- WHEREAS: In the passing of John J. O'Connor, the City of Cambridge and its people have lost an outstanding educator, leader and citizen who represented the best in community life; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council joins with family and friends in sorrow over his loss and extends its sympathy and hope for comfort to those who were near him; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is directed to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to his wife, Rita O'Connor and the members of his family in token of our sympathy at his passing.
