

City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen, Apr^{il} 15th 1863.

The Committee on Reservoirs and Drains to which was referred the Petition of Peter Greene and others for the construction of a Common Sewer in Elm Street, has considered the same, and would respectfully

Report:-

That Elm Street is a private street, having never been accepted; that said Sewer ought to be built, and that the City should take a strip of land through the centre of said street for this purpose, in the mode provided by Statute 1059, Chapter 137.-

The adoption of the accompanying Order is accordingly recommended.

Samuel James
for the Committee.
