COUNCILLOR D. SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR RUSSELL

NOVEMBER 7, 1988

WHEREAS: On November 4, 1988, Harvard University recognized the Harvard Union of Clerical and Technical Workers (HUCTW), AFSCME, AFL-CIO, as the official representative of thousands of its employees, by deciding not to appeal an adverse decision by a National Labor Relations Board administrative Law judge; and

WHEREAS: This happy occasion culminates a long heroic struggle by HUCTW members, many of whom are Cambridge citizens, and also represents a laudable step by the University, Cambridge's largest employer; and

WHEREAS: This City Council recognizes that the best labor relations result when an employer bargains in good faith with the democratically elected representatives of its employees; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council congratulates the HUCTW on this glorious victory in its difficult campaign to represent Harvard employees, and offer our steadfast support in its future endeavors; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Council also commend Harvard University, and especially President Derek Bok, for this wise and far-sighted decision, and wish both parties well in their bargaining to come; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk transmit suitable copies of this resolution to the HUCTW and to President Bok, on behalf of the entire City Council.
