VICE MAYOR REEVES

- WHEREAS: Cambridge's Community Art Center, a private, non-profit organization, has been providing vitally rewarding experiences to the children of Cambridge's Area IV for over 50 years; and
- WHEREAS: Area IV residents have the lowest per capita income in the city, the greatest number of single parent families, the highest unemployment rate, the highest school drop-out rate, and the greatest number of drug-related arrests in the city; and
- WHEREAS: The Community Art Center is the single organization in its area providing school age day care, educational work experience, intervention, advocacy and support, teen programs, and adult programs to the residents of Newtowne Court, Washington Elms, and Area IV in general; and
- WHEREAS: Cutbacks in funding from both public and private sources have forced the Center to reduce its staff from seven to two, in spite of an increased number of children, particularly pre-teens, who have applied for and would benefit greatly from the Center's services; and
- WHEREAS: The Community Arts Center, Inc. has applied to the City of Cambridge for a grant of $35,000 in order to maintain and expand its Teen/Pre-teen Media Program; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Council request the City Manager to study the Community Art Center, Inc.'s request for funding and grant the Community Arts Center the request of $35,000.

In City Council September 16, 1991.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
