NEIGHBORHOOD AND LONG TERM
PLANNING COMMITTEE MEMBERS

In City Council, November 3, 2003

Councillor Kenneth E. Reeves, Chair
Councillor Marjorie C. Decker
Councillor E. Denise Simmons

The Neighborhood and Long Term Planning Committee held a public meeting on September 23, 2003, beginning at 11:10 a.m. in the Ackermann Room, Cambridge City Hall, second floor. The purpose of the meeting was to continue planning a presentation on the Cambridge knowledge-based economy and its implications for the Cambridge Community to feature Professor Juan Enriquez and to take place at Cambridge Rindge and Latin High School (CRLS).

Present at the meeting were Councillor Kenneth E. Reeves, Chair of the Committee, Councillor E. Denise Simmons, City Clerk D. Margaret Drury, Estella Johnson, Director of Economic Development, Community Development Department (CDD), Paul Parravano, Co-Director of the Office of Government and Community Affairs, MIT, Tom Lucey, Office of Government and Community Affairs, Harvard University, Silvia Savedra Keber, Executive Director of Concilio Hispano, and Kathy Reddick, President of the Cambridge NAACP.

The date for the event featuring Professor Juan Enriquez at Cambridge Rindge and Latin High School (CRLS), aimed at high school students, teachers, parents, other youth and adults who work with youth was finalized. The event was set for October 16, 2003 at the CRLS auditorium at 3 p.m. This date was later changed to 2 p.m., at the suggestion of Assistant Principal Caroline Hunter, because on Thursdays the students end their academic day at 2 p.m.

Mailing lists, videotaping the presentation and refreshments (pizza) were discussed.

The next meeting was set for October 2, 2003 at 10 a.m. It was agreed that the next meeting would focus on outreach for the event. Councillor Reeves thanked those present for their participation.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:25 p.m.

For the Committee,

Kenneth E. Reeves
