COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: In March of 1998, the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce Committee on Community Outreach hosted a Volunteerism Summit in an effort to bolster existing volunteer efforts of the Cambridge business community; and

WHEREAS: One of the initiatives that resulted from this summit was a complete donation program; and

WHEREAS: Just in time for the beginning of school, eight computers were donated to the Rindge School of Technical Art; and

WHEREAS: The Acting Executive Director of RSTA incorporated the "cleanup" and installation of these computers into the students curriculum; and

WHEREAS: Many Cambridge businesses feel that thousands of their employees come to the City to study and to work, taking advantage of the many benefits the City has to offer, and that this is an opportunity to give something back to the community, especially its youth; and

WHEREAS: As the computer program matures, efforts will be made to enhance the program with "donated" time and expertise from employees of the businesses; and

WHEREAS: Thus far, computer donations have been received from Forest City Development, Sage Hotels, Atmosphere Environmental Research and Draper Lab; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record as congratulating the Chamber of Commerce on this initiative and encourage them to continue in this worthwhile endeavor which has the potential of being beneficial not only to many of our students, but also to Chamber Members, as they become familiarized with our schools and young people who will be future members of their organizations.
