Board of Aldermen,
City Hall,
Cambridge -

The undersigned, petitioned in July, on behalf of herself and the other residents of Berkeley St.: to have two trees in front of her dwelling-house on said street, cut down, and the other trees trimmed up very much - The street is considered too shady for health - the petition had I believe been acted on, and referred to the Superintendent of Streets - Will your honorable body please see that immediate attention be given to this matter? and very much oblige yrs. respectfully
