To the Honorable the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

Respectfully represents Michael D. Collins of Cambridge that on the ~~24th~~ 17th day of November A. D. 1891
I was in the employ of the City of Cambridge in the Street Department as a Laborer (Ash collecting Div.) and was then engaged at work at or near Mass. Ave. & Sidney Street, and while in the performance of my duties, without any fault on my part, sustained injuries by that by reason of said injuries I have been unable to perform any duties as such Laborer from the time of my injury to and including date a period of eighteen ¹⁴ ~~and one half~~ working days, and, during all this time, I did not work, solely because of my inability so to do by reason of these injuries; that my inability so to work has not been increased or extended because of any other independent prior injury, ailment or disease known to me, or by reason of any act or negligence on my part; ~~that I returned to my work the~~ day of ~~....., A. D. 189~~, and I hereby agree to give full and complete information to the City Solicitor, City Physician, and all other agents sent me in behalf of the City of all the facts and circumstances relating to or in any way affecting said injury, and my present, past and future condition of body and health.

ATTEST Edward D. Hanson CLERK.

Certificate of City Physician under Chap. 364 of the Acts of 1894.

To G. A. A. Penev

City Solicitor.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that on the eighteenth day of November, A. D. 1900, I called upon Michael D. Collins of Cambridge, a laborer in the Street Department of the City, who claims he was hurt while he was engaged at work at or near Sidney Street, by being knocked down by a run-away horse.

(Here insert what the injured tells you as to the cause and extent of his injury, the place and nature of his injury, and generally, in detail, any and all information he or others may have given you relating to his injury and how he was hurt.)

A hay was striking the horse, which came up behind him as he was walking behind his team. He suffered a dislocation of his left clavicle according to a permit signed by Q. C. Potter, to become an out-patient in the Mass. Gen. Hospital. I saw him the day following his alleged injury. His shoulder was then bandaged in such a manner that examination was impossible without removing the bandages.

~~From my first examination I found the following:~~

~~I also examined said~~ I have not since seen him.

(Put in dates, if any.)

~~I have also read the testimony of various witnesses and parties in possession of the City Solicitor.~~ From the examinations I have made as above stated, and from other information given to me as above, I am of the opinion and hereby certify that the said Michael D. Collins was incapacitated physically for the performance of his duties by injuries (Mentally or physically.)

sustained by him in the discharge of such duties on the seventeenth day of November A. D. 1900, without fault on his part, for a period of fourteen and 1/2 days, to wit:—from the said seventeenth day of November A. D. 1900, to the seventh day of December A. D. 1900, and that during this time said disability continued.
