

CITY COUNCIL ORDER
VICE MAYOR REEVES

NOVEMBER 15, 1990

36

National AIDS Awareness Day

- WHEREAS: The first day of December, 1990, has been designated a national day of action and mourning in response to the AIDS crisis, and
- WHEREAS: This terrible disease is killing so many people, from the twenty to forty age group -- the group which has traditionally provided care and guidance for young children and care for elderly relatives, -- that family structures throughout the world are being destroyed, and
- WHEREAS: As of October 1, 1990, Cambridge had 102 residents suffering from AIDS, with an estimated one thousand to three thousand more increasingly younger people who are infected with the virus, and
- WHEREAS: AIDS has the potential to severely impact family structures within our own communities, and
- WHEREAS: The people of the City of Cambridge are working together to address this tragic problem; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council supports and encourages the ongoing and united efforts of our government, religious, and business organizations to fight this dreadful disease and provide help for those who are already infected.
-

City of Cambridge

36.

IN CITY COUNCIL
November 19, 1990

VICE MAYOR REEVES

- WHEREAS: The first day of December, 1990, has been designated a national day of action and mourning in response to the AIDS crisis; and
- WHEREAS: This terrible disease is killing so many people, from the twenty to forty age group--the group which has traditionally provided care and guidance for young children and care for elderly relatives,-- that family structures throughout the world are being destroyed; and
- WHEREAS: As of October 1, 1990, Cambridge had 102 residents suffering from AIDS, with an estimated one thousand to three thousand more increasingly younger people who are infected with the virus; and
- WHEREAS: AIDS has the potential to severely impact family structures within our own communities; and
- WHEREAS: The people of the City of Cambridge are working together to address this tragic problem; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council supports and encourages the ongoing and united efforts of our government, religious and business organizations to fight this dreadful disease and provide help for those who are already infected.

In City Council November 19, 1990.
Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Joseph E. Connarton".

Joseph E. Connarton
City Clerk

City of Cambridge

36.

IN CITY COUNCIL

November 19, 1990

VICE MAYOR REEVES

- WHEREAS: The first day of December, 1990, has been designated a national day of action and mourning in response to the AIDS crisis; and
- WHEREAS: This terrible disease is killing so many people, from the twenty to forty age group—the group which has traditionally provided care and guidance for young children and care for elderly relatives,— that family structures throughout the world are being destroyed; and
- WHEREAS: As of October 1, 1990, Cambridge had 102 residents suffering from AIDS, with an estimated one thousand to three thousand more increasingly younger people who are infected with the virus; and
- WHEREAS: AIDS has the potential to severely impact family structures within our own communities; and
- WHEREAS: The people of the City of Cambridge are working together to address this tragic problem; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council supports and encourages the ongoing and united efforts of our government, religious and business organizations to fight this dreadful disease and provide help for those who are already infected.

NOV. 19 1990

City Council

Adopted by the affirmative vote

of 9 members

Joseph C. Conerton

City Clerk

Order # 36 S-1115

Vice Mayor Reeves re: support for the efforts to fight aids.

In City Council,

November 19, 1990

Order adopted