Vice Mayor Russell
Councillor Toomey:

Whereas: The Republican Majority of Congress is recommending drastic changes in the Medicare system which would affect Senior Citizens everywhere, and

Whereas: Many senior advocate groups have gone to Washington to voice their opposition regarding these cuts, and

Whereas: Congressman Joseph Kennedy held a "town meeting" recently at the Cambridge Hospital to address these concerns, now therefore be it

Resolved: that we encourage seniors and disabled people in our cities to write to their representatives in Congress, and also to the Republican members of our Congressional delegation Reps. Blute and Torkildson, to convey their opposition, and also encourage any of their relatives to do the same, so that the voices of our seniors will be heard on Capitol Hill.
