Dear Alice:

I want to commend you and your city for the wonderful sister city relationship that you have with Yerevan. Your outpouring of friendship to the people of that Armenian city is really significant to them during their time of suffering and shock.

I know you were as touched as I was when Vladimir Dilanian described the tragedies of the devastating earthquake with tears in his eyes.

It was great to hear President-Elect George Bush personally praise the people-to-people efforts of the Cambridge sister city program. When Babken Vardanyan told Mr. Bush about the effects of the earthquake, I could see how deeply moved our next president was.

Please keep up your great interest and work in the sister city cause and relay to your local committee and fellow councilmen how pleased Sister Cities International is with your many achievements and wonderful spirit.

Best personal regards,

Richard G. Neuseisel
