NOVEMBER 5, 1990

COUNCILLOR MYERS

- WHEREAS: The City Council Subcommittee on Rent Control is in the midst of a comprehensive review of the rent control system to assess what's working and what needs to be improved with the rent control system; and
- WHEREAS: This is a comprehensive process involving much time and effort on the part of the committee which will likely lead to major recommendations with regard to Cambridge rent control; and
- WHEREAS: The Rent Control Board is also considering different options for ways to improve the workings of the city's rent control system; and
- WHEREAS: It is important that an effort be made to harmonize the situation so that two different sets of conflicting recommendations not be made if possible, and that the Board be fully aware of the Council's work on this matter; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Chair of the Rent Board be invited to an upcoming meeting of the Rent Control Subcommittee to update the Committee on the Board's work, and to further the Rent Board's perspective on the work that the Council is doing on the matter.
