Cambridge Zoning Board

Gentlemen:

I am the owner of the residential property at 1436 Cambridge Street and 73 and 75 Fayette Street. It has come to my attention that the proposed zoning change would permit high-rise buildings on Cambridge Street as far beyond Inman Square as Fayette Street. I believe such a change would be detrimental to my property and surrounding homes, which need sunlight. Furthermore, the street is blocked with moving traffic until late at night, and parking spaces are now almost non-existent. Please confine high-rise expansion to the Square.

Sincerely yours,
Rose F. McGirr

Dear Ms McGirr:

Thank you for your letter of January 25th, copies of which I have forwarded to the Cambridge Planning Board (who held a public hearing on this proposed change of zoning on January 16, 1973), and the City Clerk Paul E. Healy, who will schedule the public hearing when and if it comes before the City Council of Cambridge. (usually the next step).

The Board of Zoning Appeal only hears cases seeking to vary the zoning on a specific property.

Very truly yours,

Lillian Novak, Secretary
Board of Zoning Appeal
